

Timetable of IIED Participation at the World Conservation Congress Events Bangkok, Thailand, November 2004

DAY	EVENT
Thursday Nov. 18
7:00 - 9:00	Poverty and Conservation Learning Group Meeting Participant: Dilys Roe, Senior Researcher, Biodiversity Location: Invitation-only breakfast meeting.  Initial meeting of a new initiative: The International Poverty and Conservation Learning Group.
20:00 - 22:00	Book Launch: Building Local Capacity to Bridge the Conservation and Development Divide Participants: Camilla Toulmin, Director , Janet Boston, Director of Communications , Sarah Henson, Programme Officer Location: Meeting Room 3  Find out how the MDGs relate to Conservation in this 2 nd in the series book and hear more about the Learning Group. Guest speakers include Pablo Farias of the Ford Foundation and Steve Bass of DFID. Food and drink will be provided.
20:00 - 22:00	Book Launch: Sharing Power: Learning by doing in co-management of natural resources throughout the world Participant: Michel Pimbert, Principal Associate, Sustainable Agriculture and Rural Livelihoods Location: Breakout Room 12  A state of the art on the governance of natural resources – a new book published by IIED and IUCN.
Friday Nov. 19
9:00 - 11:30	Law enforcement and governance of natural resources Participants: Krystyna Swiderska, Research Associate, Biodiversity , Duncan MacQueen, Senior Research Associate, Forestry and Land Use Location: Breakout Room 5  This Global Synthesis Workshop examines the impacts of policies and laws for natural resource conservation on the livelihoods of the poor.

9:00 -
11:30

---

Links between MDGs and 2010 targets, exploring what linking conservation and poverty means to different institutions

Participant: Dilys Roe, Senior Researcher, Biodiversity
Location: Plenary Hall 2

A Global Synthesis Workshop relating the Millennium Development Goals (MDGs) to the 2010 targets.

---

14:00 -
16:30

Sustainable Products and the PPMs Dilemma

Participant: Annie Dufey, Research Associate, Environmental Economics

Location: Breakout Room 9

A Global Synthesis Workshop which focuses on issues related to certification, eco-labeling and Production and Process Methods.

---

14:00 -
15:15

Ensuring equity in ecosystem service markets

Participant: Maryanne Grieg-Gran, Acting Programme Director, Environmental Economics

Location: Meeting Room 3

A Global Synthesis Workshop exploring ways in which markets and payments for environmental services could make a positive contribution to poverty reduction.

---

17:00 -
19:00

The US Presidential elections: Implications for the Global Environment and International Conservation.

Participant: Camilla Toulmin, Director

Location: Breakout Room 5

How the new administration will impact environmental protection not only in the U.S., but worldwide. A panel discussion with ample opportunity for audience participation.

---

19:30 -
22:00

Contribution of the poor in poverty reduction and conservation: good policies from good practices

Participants: Tom Bigg, Senior Research Associate, Global Governance, Sarah Henson, Programme Officer

Location: Breakout Room 8

This meeting, held by the Ring, will discuss ways in which the poor can contribute to conservation. Food and drink will be provided.

20:00

IUCN and Kingdom of Thailand Reception and Dinner

---

Saturday
Nov. 20

09:00 -
11:00

Many voices: Strategic choices - revisiting international environmental governance

Participant: Camilla Toulmin, Director

Location: Lotus meeting area

---

13:00 -
14:00

IUCN Futures Dialogues: What world in 2050?

Moderator: Janet Boston, Director of Communications

Location: Press Centre

A discussion on environmental governance in times of uncertainty. Panelists are Klaus Toepfer, Meenakshi Raman, Carlos Manuel Rodriguez, Emil Salim, and Ian Johnson.

---